WAIVER OF ACCESS - ADMISSIONS INTERVIEW REPORTS

Interviews with members of local Alumni Admissions Committees are a part of the Georgetown admissions process. Summaries of these interviews are normally included in the student's file for use in the admissions process and in counseling by officials at Georgetown University. In accordance with the Family Educational Rights Privacy Act of 1974, indicate your choice by checking one of the following options:

- I waive access to these reports which shall therefore be considered confidential  I do not waive access to these reports
Date ..... Student's Signature .....

The applicant and parent or guardian understand, and agree, that this Application, the Secondary School Report, the Teacher's Report, and any other information received by the Admissions Office as part of the admissions process are the property of Georgetown University and shall be strictly confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone other than officials of Georgetown University except at the discretion of the Dean of Admissions. Enrolled students have access to the contents of their files except for confidential documents to which access has been waived by the student.

It is further agreed and understood by both the prospective student and parents that Georgetown University is a private institution, and as such, retains the right to terminate a student's matriculation if at any time his or her academic performance is seriously deficient or his or her conduct becomes injurious to the maintenance of good order or disruptive of an academic atmosphere. The applicant recognizes that students accepted to Georgetown University commit themselves to academic integrity through the Honor System. Upon matriculation, all students will be asked to sign the Honor Pledge. The applicant also affirms that the information and statements contained in the application are true, correct and complete.
